

Dear Shirley,

Hello, how are you doing?
I hope you are doing well.

As you may or maybe not know,
Daniel enjoys writing in his journal very much.

He writes in it everyday.

We would buy him a new journal except we can't afford it.

We wonder if you could buy it?

He would have asked you himself,

but he is shy and embarrassed because he doesn't know you very well yet. Since we feel so far apart,

we thought maybe you could buy a journal from our band called the Burns Lake Band?

We are from the Carrier Nation.

Thank you for reading our request.

Shirley.

We hope it works out for Daniel.

please tell him we said hello and we miss him very much.

Bernie & Nathan Bob
