

Dear Linda Reid,

The results of Meghan's first tests for possible Autism came back inconclusive. We will need to schedule additional tests. Please contact me at your earliest convenience to schedule the necessary appointments.

I would also like to remind you that the doctors could use your Log Book entries to aid them with their diagnosis. Please insure you are consistently documenting any unusual behavior.

Sincerely,

Eliza Gregory
Guardianship Worker