

Dear Stan Hagen,

I just wanted to check in and see how my little Rosemary is doing? I can't wait to see her next weekend for our scheduled visit! Her last visit was so wonderful and we had such a great time together at the park.

Things are a little tight this week, and I was wondering if you could send some groceries with Rosemary when she comes to visit next weekend? Rosemary and I really enjoy cooking together and we plan on making chocolate chip muffins. I told her all about it and she is so excited!

Anyway, I will see you next Friday. Do you think you could bring Rosemary by at 9 o'clock cause I need to run some errands after dinner? Since it is so late, maybe you could have her bathed and ready for bed when she gets here ok.
